Joint note from Board members:

We are glad to inform you that we are helping our three implementing partners: Prayas, CIMS, and Nag Foundation. It gives us great pleasure to announce that in the last six months, we have financially supported four underprivileged patients who approached us. Every month we are donating 40K to Nag foundation.

On the eve of Late Cheeru Maam's birthday on February 10, we are happy to announce that Malaka Spice Restaurant has donated a few surgical items to Prayas and one month's ration for all cancer patients to CIMS as per their requirement. On 25th of Feb 2024 Malaka Spice along with our beverage partner Diageo teamed up to raise funds for the Live Life Love Life Charity Foundation.

CIMS treated 12 patients suffering from breast cancer, Ca oesophagus, and Ca maxilla in the last six months. Palliative care by Nag Foundation is supported by LLLLCF. Dr. Ramdasi has been the Palliative Care Consultant at Sahyadri Hospital Hadapsar for Nag Foundation. From January to 31st May, he has seen 147 patients. from 1st June Prerana Kulkarni (M.B.B.S.,M.S.-OBST & GYNAE) is the Palliative Care Consultant for Nag Foundation.The Best of MASCC (Multinational Association of Supportive Care in Cancer) conference was co-organized by IASCC and Nag Foundation. Nag Foundation has supported the radiation machine at Surya Sahyadri Hospital. At Surya Hospital, unaffording cancer patients are treated free under the Mahatma Phule scheme. The much-needed survivorship program has been well received and has helped the patients and caregivers.

We are in deep gratitude towards all our donors, who have come forward to generously donate for the treatment of cancer.

Palliative Care by Nag Foundation supported by LLLL

Dr Vijay Ramdasi has been the Palliative Care Consultant at Sahyadri Hospital Hadapsar for Nag Foundation till 31st May. From 1st June Prerana Kulkarni (M.B.B.S.,M.S.-OBST & GYNAE) is the Palliative Care Consultant for Nag Foundation

He consults with Cancer patients undergoing various treatments like chemotherapy, radiation and surgery. From Jan to May he has seen 147 patients.

Dr Ramdasi takes rounds in wards and sees patients on curative and palliative chemotherapy and other patients requiring any palliative advice. He discusses the psychological, social and even spiritual aspects with patients and family members . Discusses ways to face present challenges and conditions with patients and family members.

Simple breathing exercises are also advised. Pain management of all the patients requiring it is done. Patients and family members interested in spiritual aspects like prayer, meditation and other spiritual aspects are advised accordingly.

He helps caregivers to understand and adjust to patients' physical and psychological needs

Survivorship programs are available for both patient and caregivers at the hospitals, (Sahyadri Superspeciality Hospitals at Hadpasar, Deccan and Shastrinagar) and Surya Sahyadri Hospital, Kasba Peth which the foundation is associated with. The much needed Survivorship program has been well received and has helped the patients and caregivers.

Palliative care is specialized medical care for people living with a serious illness, such as cancer, it also helps patients cope with side effects of cancer. Nag Foundation has initiated Palliative Care Services, supported by Live Life Love Life Charity Foundation
